

AMERICAN EXPERIENCE
Robert E. Lee
Monday, January 3 at 9:00 p.m.

The leading Confederate general of the American Civil War remains a source of fascination and, for some, veneration. This film examines the life and reputation of the general, whose military successes made him the scourge of the Union and the hero of the Confederacy and who was elevated to almost god-like status by his admirers after his death.

MASTERPIECE CLASSIC
Downton Abbey
Premieres Sunday January 9 at 9:00 p.m.

A stately country house, a noble family, and a succession crisis are the backdrop for Downton Abbey, an Edwardian spellbinder by Oscar-winning writer Julian Fellowes (Gosford Park). Starring Hugh Bonneville, Maggie Smith, Elizabeth McGovern, and a house full of revered actors in a production that brings a glittering bygone era to life.

Pioneers of Television
Monday January 18 & 25 at 8:00 p.m.

Returning to PBS for a second season offering the inside stories of the formidable visionaries who recall the fledgling medium they shaped with their creativity, foresight and wisdom. This series once again transports viewers behind the scenes for a revealing look at the inception of four of the most popular genres in television: science fiction, westerns, crime dramas and local kids' TV.
